[REDACTED] I advised Ahlers that on the basis of our prior contact with these men we were not desirous of seeing them again. Ahlers reiterated what he had said yesterday to the effect that these men are apparently regarded as troublemakers and thought the Agency might "want to keep tabs on them." I advised Ahlers that this was something that would more properly be a responsibility of the FBI and added that I would alert our people who are in touch with the Bureau on such matters.
